HOWDY HOP SCHEDULED

The first event on the students' social calendar at Harbor Junior College will be the annual get-acquainted dance called the Howdy Hop, to be held on the campus Thursday evening, J. Reburn Hatfield, Dean of Student Activities, announced today.

The dance is a sport affair strictly for students and their guests; admission will be Assorted Student Body membership card. Horace Pullen, student coordinator of activities, has arranged for Sal Frisina's orchestra to play.

"We dedicate this first social event to the new students on our campus so they may have an early opportunity to become better acquainted," Hatfield explained.

SLOW GROWTH

The olive tree grows slowly and seldom reaches a height of more than 30 feet.

Temple Menorah Sisterhood Holds Friendship Party

Members, prospective members and friends of Temple Menorah Sisterhood recently joined for an evening of festivities at a "Friendship Party". After a welcoming address by Mrs. Arnold Cowan, president, in which she stressed national and international interests of Sisterhoods, Rabbi Samuel Chomsky spoke to the assembled group about the need for a concerted effort to fulfill Jewish residents of the Bay Area. He emphasized the desirability of Congregational and Sisterhood cooperation for the proposed new Temple and Social Center.

11 Teacher Increase For El Nido Staff

Due to the more than double enrollment at El Nido Elementary School, three new classrooms have been added; 11 new teachers, bus service for the first time, and a kindergarten playground.

Mr. Petrat, who was vice-principal last year, is the new principal. He announced the enrollment was 233 last year, this year it is 498, with the possibility of its going higher.

New teachers are: kindergarten, Mrs. Dorothy Hall, Miss Wilma Miller, Miss Joan Demont; first grade, Mrs. Shirley Phillips; third grade, Mrs. Constance Studden, Mrs. Annie LaRosa; fifth grade, Mrs. Charles Gasci; sixth grade, Mrs. Tom Crutcher; seventh grade, Mr. Patrick McManus; eighth grade, Mr. Jerry Davidson.

El Nido PTA members helped register the new pupils the first day of school.

Mrs. Phillo Mellor was in charge of registrations from 8:30 until 12:30; Mrs. Paul Herring from 12:30 until 2 p.m.

Mrs. Margiebell Brown and Donald Mullaney of special services from the Board of Education were introduced by Lester Foster, principal.

Mrs. J. Jarrell, Mrs. D. C. Robbins and other board members of the unit will be hostesses.

Purpose of the tea is to provide room mothers for the different classes to help everyone get acquainted. This will be the PTA's regular silver tea and donations will help the treasury fund. This promises to be a friendly get-together; coffee, tea and cookies will be plentiful.

EL NIDO PTA El Nido PTA will hold its first meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. There will be community singing led by the sixth grade.

SISTERHOOD

Mrs. Sydney Siegel, past president, chose as her subject "What Sisterhood Means To Me," and outlined the benefits to be derived from membership in the organization. Her remarks pointed out the importance of the Religious School which is Sisterhood's foremost project.

Mrs. Sam Katz and Mrs. Paul Scheer were in charge of the novel program in which all who were present participated. Mrs. Reuben Drabin and Mrs. Bernard Becker served refreshments provided by members.
